

JACKSONS EQUESTRIAN SUPPORTS THE EMILE FAURIE FOUNDATION

Jacksons Equestrian is delighted to announce its first official donation to the Emile Faurie Foundation, relating to funds raised during the last financial year. The company presented a cheque for £1,490 at last week's Royal Windsor Horse Show.

Jacksons has been working with the Foundation since it launched its dedicated equestrian range. The charity, set up by international dressage rider Emile Faurie - a founder member of the Jacksons Professional Rider Team - aims to introduce children to the joy of horses. Since the Foundation was started it has funded over 30 projects and enabled over 9000 children (often from inner city schools) to access quality riding lessons developing personal and social skills along the way.

Mary-Anne Horn, who runs the charity on behalf of Emile Faurie says "we have a long standing relationship with Jacksons and are delighted to receive this generous donation. We are regularly inundated with requests for support and rely entirely on donations such as this to make it possible for us to continue to reach so many children".

For further details on the Emile Faurie Foundation visit www.emilefauriefoundation.org.uk.